The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. ## Document Package for Applicant's/Tenant's Consent to the Release Of Information

This Package contains the following documents:

- 1. HUD-9887/A Fact Sheet describing the necessary verifications
- 2. Form HUD-9887 (to be signed by the Applicant or Tenant)
- 3. Form HUD-9887-A (to be signed by the Applicant or Tenant and Housing Owner)
- 4. Relevant Verifications (to be signed by the Applicant or Tenant)

Each household must receive a copy of the 9887/A Fact Sheet, form HUD-9887, and form HUD-9887-A.

Verification of Information Provided by Applicants and Tenants of Assisted Housing

What Verification Involves

To receive housing assistance, applicants and tenants who are at least 18 years of age and each family head, spouse, or co-head regardless of age must provide the owner or management agent (O/A) or public housing agency (PHA) with certain information specified by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

To make sure that the assistance is used properly, Federal laws require that the information you provide be verified. This information is verified in two ways:

1. HUD, O/As, and PHAs may verify the information you provide by checking with the records kept by certain public agencies (e.g., Social Security Administration (SSA), State agency that keeps wage and unemployment compensation claim information, and the Department of Health and Human Services' (HHS) National Directory of New Hires (NDNH) database that stores wage, new hires, and unemployment compensation). HUD (only) may verify information covered in your tax returns from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS). You give your consent to the release of this information by signing form HUD-9887. Only HUD, O/As, and PHAs can receive information authorized by this form.
2. The O/A must verify the information that is used to determine your eligibility and the amount of rent you pay. You give your consent to the release of this information by signing the form HUD-9887, the form HUD-9887-A, and the individual verification and consent forms that apply to you. Federal laws limit the kinds of information the O/A can receive about you. The amount of income you receive helps to determine the amount of rent you will pay. The O/A will verify all of the sources of income that you report. There are certain allowances that reduce the income used in determining tenant rents.

Example: Mrs. Anderson is 62 years old. Her age qualifies her for a medical allowance. Her annual income will be adjusted because of this allowance. Because Mrs. Anderson's medical expenses will help determine the amount of rent she pays, the O/A is required to verify any medical expenses that she reports.

Example: Mr. Harris does not qualify for the medical allowance because he is not at least 62 years of age and he is not handicapped or disabled. Because he is not eligible for the medical allowance, the amount of his medical expenses does not change the amount of rent he pays. Therefore, the O/A cannot ask Mr. Harris anything about his medical expenses and cannot verify with a third party about any medical expenses he has.

Customer Protections

Information received by HUD is protected by the Federal Privacy Act. Information received by the O/A or the PHA is subject to State privacy laws. Employees of HUD, the O/A, and the PHA are subject to penalties for using these consent forms improperly. You do not have to sign the form HUD-9887, the form HUD-9887-A, or the individual verification consent forms when they are given to you at your certification or recertification interview. You may take them home with you to read or to discuss with a third party of your choice. The O/A will give you another date when you can return to sign these forms.

If you cannot read and/or sign a consent form due to a disability, the O/A shall make a reasonable accommodation in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Such accommodations may include: home visits when the applicant's or tenant's disability prevents him/her from coming to the office to complete the forms; the applicant or tenant authorizing another person to sign on his/her behalf; and for persons with visual impairments, accommodations may include providing the forms in large script or braille or providing readers.

If an adult member of your household, due to extenuating circumstances, is unable to sign the form HUD-9887 or the individual verification forms on time, the O/A may document the file as to the reason for the delay and the specific plans to obtain the proper signature as soon as possible.

The O/A must tell you, or a third party which you choose, of the findings made as a result of the O/A verifications authorized by your consent. The O/A must give you the opportunity to contest such findings in accordance with HUD Handbook 4350.3 Rev. 1. However, for information received under the form HUD-9887 or form HUD-9887-A, HUD, the O/A, or the PHA, may inform you of these findings.

O/As must keep tenant files in a location that ensures confidentiality. Any employee of the O/A who fails to keep tenant information confidential is subject to the enforcement provisions of the State Privacy Act and is subject to enforcement actions by HUD. Also, any applicant or tenant affected by negligent disclosure or improper use of information may bring civil action for damages, and seek other relief, as may be appropriate, against the employee.

HUD-9887/A requires the O/A to give each household a copy of the Fact Sheet, and forms HUD-9887, HUD-9887-A along with appropriate individual consent forms. The package you will receive will include the following documents:

1. HUD-9887/A Fact Sheet: Describes the requirement to verify information provided by individuals who apply for housing assistance. This fact sheet also describes consumer protections under the verification process.
2. Form HUD-9887: Allows the release of information between government agencies.
3. Form HUD-9887-A: Describes the requirement of third party verification along with consumer protections.
4. Individual verification consents: Used to verify the relevant information provided by applicants/tenants to determine their eligibility and level of benefits.

Consequences for Not Signing the Consent Forms

If you fail to sign the form HUD-9887, the form HUD-9887-A, or the individual verification forms, this may result in your assistance being denied (for applicants) or your assistance being terminated (for tenants). See further explanation on the forms HUD-9887 and 9887-A.

If you are an applicant and are denied assistance for this reason, the O/A must notify you of the reason for your rejection and give you an opportunity to appeal the decision.

If you are a tenant and your assistance is terminated for this reason, the O/A must follow the procedures set out in the Lease. This includes the opportunity for you to meet with the O/A.

Authority for Requiring Applicant's/Tenant's Consent to the Release of Information

Section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988, as amended by section 903 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992. This law is found at 42 U.S.C. 3544.

In part, this law requires you to sign a consent form authorizing the Owner to request current or previous employers to verify salary and wage information pertinent to your eligibility or level of benefits.

In addition, HUD regulations (24 CFR 5.659, Family Information and Verification) require as a condition of receiving housing assistance that you must sign a HUD-approved release and consent authorizing any depository or private source of income to furnish such information that is necessary in determining your eligibility or level of benefits. This includes information that you have provided which will affect the amount of rent you pay. The information includes income and assets, such as salary, welfare benefits, and interest earned on savings accounts. They also include certain adjustments to your income, such as the allowances for dependents and for households whose heads or spouses are elderly handicapped, or disabled; and allowances for child care expenses, medical expenses, and handicap assistance expenses.

Purpose of Requiring Consent to the Release of Information

In signing this consent form, you are authorizing the Owner of the housing project to which you are applying for assistance to request information from a third party about you. HUD requires the housing owner to verify all of the information you provide that affects your eligibility and level of benefits to ensure that you are eligible for assisted housing benefits and that these benefits are set at the correct levels. Upon the request of the HUD office or the PHA (as Contract Administrator), the housing Owner may provide HUD or the PHA with the information you have submitted and the information the Owner receives under this consent.

Uses of Information to be Obtained

The individual listed on the verification form may request and receive the information requested by the verification, subject to the limitations of this form. HUD is required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a. The Owner and the PHA are also required to protect the income information they obtain in accordance with any applicable state privacy law. Should the Owner receive information from a third party that is inconsistent with the information you have provided, the Owner is required to notify you in writing identifying the information believed to be incorrect. If this should occur, you will have the opportunity to meet with the Owner to discuss any discrepancies.

Who Must Sign the Consent Form

Each member of your household who is at least 18 years of age, and each family head, spouse or co-head, regardless of age must sign the relevant consent forms at the initial certification, at each recertification and at each interim certification, if applicable. In addition, when new adult members join the household and when members of the household become 18 years of age they must also sign the relevant consent forms.

Persons who apply for or receive assistance under the following programs must sign the relevant consent forms:

Rental Assistance Program (RAP)
Rent Supplement
Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments Programs (administered by the Office of Housing)
Section 202
Sections 202 and 811 PRAC
Section 202/162 PAC
Section 221(d)(3) Below Market Interest Rate
Section 236
HOPE 2 Home Ownership of Multifamily Units

Failure to Sign the Consent Form

Failure to sign any required consent form may result in the denial of assistance or termination of assisted housing benefits. If an applicant is denied assistance for this reason, the O/A must follow the notification procedures in Handbook 4350.3 Rev. 1. If a tenant is denied assistance for this reason, the O/A must follow the procedures set out in the lease.

Conditions

No action can be taken to terminate, deny, suspend or reduce the assistance your household receives based on information obtained about you under this consent until the O/A has independently 1) verified the information you have provided with respect to your eligibility and level of benefits and 2) with respect to income (including both earned and unearned income), the O/A has verified whether you actually have (or had) access to such income for your own use, and verified the period or periods when, or with respect to which you actually received such income, wages, or benefits.

A photocopy of the signed consent may be used to request the information authorized by your signature on the individual consent forms. This would occur if the O/A does not have another individual verification consent with an original signature and the O/A is required to send out another request for verification (for example, the third party fails to respond). If this happens, the O/A may attach a photocopy of this consent to a photocopy of the individual verification form that you sign. To avoid the use of photocopies, the O/A and the individual may agree to sign more than one consent for each type of verification that is needed. The O/A shall inform you, or a third party which you designate, of the findings made on the basis of information verified under this consent and shall give you an opportunity to contest such findings in accordance with Handbook 4350.3 Rev. 1.

The O/A must provide you with information obtained under this consent in accordance with State privacy laws.

If a member of the household who is required to sign the consent forms is unable to sign the required forms on time, due to extenuating circumstances, the O/A may document the file as to the reason for the delay and the specific plans to obtain the proper signature as soon as possible.

Individual consents to the release of information expire 15 months after they are signed. The O/A may use these individual consent forms during the 120 days preceding the certification period. The O/A may also use these forms during the certification period, but only in cases where the O/A receives information indicating that the information you have provided may be incorrect. Other uses are prohibited.

The O/A may not make inquiries into information that is older than 12 months unless he/she has received inconsistent information and has reason to believe that the information that you have supplied is incorrect. If this occurs, the O/A may obtain information within the last 5 years when you have received assistance.

APPLYING FOR HUD HOUSING ASSISTANCE?

THINK ABOUT THIS...
IS FRAUD WORTH IT?

Do You Realize...

If you commit fraud to obtain assisted housing from HUD, you could be:

- Evicted from your apartment or house.
- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received.
- Fined up to $10,000.
- Imprisoned for up to five years.
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance.
- Subject to State and local government penalties.

Do You Know...

You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that you provided false or misleading information.

The information you provide on housing assistance application and recertification forms will be checked. The local housing agency, HUD, or the Office of Inspector General will check the income and asset information you provide with other Federal, State, or local governments and with private agencies. Certifying false information is fraud.

So Be Careful!

When you fill out your application and yearly recertification for assisted housing from HUD make sure your answers to the questions are accurate and honest. You must include:

All sources of income and changes in income you or any members of your household receive, such as wages, welfare payments, social security and veterans' benefits, pensions, retirement, etc.

Any money you receive on behalf of your children, such as child support, AFDC payments, social security for children, etc.

Any increase in income, such as wages from a new job or an expected pay raise or bonus.

All assets, such as bank accounts, savings bonds, certificates of deposit, stocks, real estate, etc., that are owned by you or any member of your household.

All income from assets, such as interest from savings and checking accounts, stock dividends, etc.

Any business or asset (your home) that you sold in the last two years at less than full value.

The names of everyone, adults or children, relatives and non-relatives, who are living with you and make up your household.

(Important Notice for Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Rita Evacuees: HUD's reporting requirements may be temporarily waived or suspended because of your circumstances. Contact the local housing agency before you complete the housing assistance application.)

Ask Questions

If you don't understand something on the application or recertification forms, always ask questions. It's better to be safe than sorry.

Watch Out for Housing Assistance Scams!

- Don't pay money to have someone fill out housing assistance application and recertification forms for you.
- Don't pay money to move up on a waiting list.
- Don't pay for anything that is not covered by your lease.
- Get a receipt for any money you pay.
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay for anything other than rent (maintenance or utility charges).

Report Fraud

If you know of anyone who provided false information on a HUD housing assistance application or recertification or if anyone tells you to provide false information, report that person to the HUD Office of Inspector General Hotline. You can call the Hotline toll-free Monday through Friday, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Eastern Time, at 1-800-347-3735. Public reporting burden for this collection is estimated to average 10 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This information is required to obtain benefits and voluntary. HUD may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

This information is authorized by the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 as amended, the Housing and Urban Rural Recovery Act of 1983 and Housing and Community Development Technical Amendments of 1984. This information is needed to be in compliance with OMB-mandated changes to Ethnicity and Race categories for recording the 50059 Data Requirements to HUD. Owners/agents must offer the opportunity to the head and co-head of each household to "self certify" during the application interview or lease signing. In-place tenants must complete the format as part of their next interim or annual re-certification. This process will allow the owner/agent to collect the needed information on all members of the household. Completed documents should be stapled together for each household and placed in the household's file. Parents or guardians are to complete the self-certification for children under the age of 18. Once system development funds are provided and the appropriate system upgrades have been implemented, owners/agents will be required to report the race and ethnicity data electronically to the TRACS (Tenant Rental Assistance Certification System). This information is considered non-sensitive and does not require any special protection.

Consideration of the Need for Reasonable Accommodation

You have the right to request a reasonable accommodation to assist in facilitating a meeting with CSI Support & Development. CSI Support & Development will consider extenuating circumstances where this would be required as a matter of reasonable accommodation.

Protections Provided Through the Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization of 2013 (VAWA 2013)

HUD provides protections for victims of acts of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking and sexual assault.

This is true for women and men. While victims are still required to meet criminal and screening requirements, you will not be subject to denial solely because you are a victim of an act covered under VAWA 2013. Where someone is abusive to other members of the household, only the abuser may be evicted. Residents in assisted housing facing threat of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking or threat of such violence can be allowed early lease termination for a matter of safety. If you would like to exercise your VAWA protections, please contact CSI Support & Development immediately.

Notification of Non-Discrimination Based on Disability

CSI Support & Development does not discriminate on the basis of disability status in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its federally assisted programs and activities. We have a 504 coordinator designated to coordinate compliance with the nondiscrimination requirements contained in the Department of Housing and Urban Development's regulations implementing Section 504 (24 CFR, part 8 dated June 2, 1988): CSI Support & Development, Attn: 504 Coordinator, 8425 E. 12 Mile Road, Warren, MI 48093, 586-753-9002, TDD 800-348-7011

- a. CSI Support & Development respects the rights, privacy and privileges of all individuals that are engaged in CSI managed cooperative housing. All co-op members are recognized as a team that share common goals for the improvement in his/her home for each and every member. Diversity is valued in race, color, sex, age and ability. Volunteers and paid staff are similarly recognized and should be treated equally. Behavior that appears to be disrespectful towards others and/or poor conduct at co-op meetings or CSI Support & Development sponsored events is unacceptable.
- b. Bullying includes comments or conduct intended to intimidate, humiliate or isolate people in a way that causes physical or emotional distress. This behavior is demoralizing and counter-productive to our cooperative management system and will not be tolerated in any CSI Support & Development Services' co-op. Therefore, the following shall apply:
  - i. Verbal aggression, including, but not limited to, threatening, taunting, harassment, stalking, starting rumors, and hate speech may result in disciplinary action up to and including eviction.
  - ii. Physical aggression, including, but not limited to, hitting, kicking, pushing, choking, and punching shall result in eviction.

B. Lethal Weapons:

- a. Lethal weapons shall include all deadly weapons, which, from the manner used, are calculated or likely to produce death or serious bodily injury. This includes, but is not limited to all firearms, hunting knives, switchblades, bows and arrows, machetes, billy clubs, tasers, stun guns, BB guns, pellet guns and paint guns. Residents shall not carry or possess lethal weapons anywhere within the building or on the co-op property other than to transport such items between residents' apartments and their vehicle, in which case such lethal weapons must be concealed or transported in an appropriate carrying case. All such lethal weapons must remain in the immediate control of the resident and must be stored in resident's apartment in such a manner so as to prevent any other resident, guest, authorized or unauthorized person from gaining access to such weapon.

- b. Implying possession of, threatening to use, displaying to any other person (including to any other resident), brandishing, using, or discharging a weapon either in the building or on the co-op property is strictly prohibited except in the act of self-defense as may be permitted by law. Residents shall timely report to management the presence of any person within the building or on the property, who is possessing a lethal weapon in violation of these provisions.
  - c. The discharge of any fireworks or firecrackers is prohibited in the building and property.
  - d. The possession of lethal weapons by any guests of residents, excluding police officers, is strictly prohibited.
- C. Noise:
- a. Quiet hours are between 11:00pm and 7:00am but please be mindful that at all other times of the day, that the noise you make in your apartment and common areas can disturb others. Please maintain a respectful noise level at all times.
- D. Offensive Behavior
- a. Abusive, offensive, or foul language or behavior will not be tolerated
- E. Illegal drug activity:
- a. The Controlled Substances Act categorizes marijuana as a Schedule 1 substance and therefore the manufacture, distribution, possession or use of marijuana is a federal criminal offense and not allowed on any CSI property because of federal funds received. Because the Controlled Substances Act prohibits all forms of marijuana use, the use of “medical marijuana” is illegal under federal law even if it is permitted under state law and is considered a lease violation. (CSI)
- F. Smoking:
- a. Franklin Park Villa Co-op is gradually transforming into a 100% smoke free Co-op; smoking is not allowed in any common area or within 25 feet of the building. Your response to this letter does not preclude you from exercising other avenues available if you believe that you are being discriminated against on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, handicap, or any other state or locally protected classes.

Consideration of the Need for Reasonable Accommodation

You have the right to request a reasonable accommodation to assist in facilitating a meeting with CSI Support & Development. CSI Support & Development will consider extenuating circumstances where this would be required as a matter of reasonable accommodation.

Protections Provided Through the Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization of 2013 (VAWA 2013)

HUD provides protections for victims of acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. These protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation, and for persons affiliated with victims who experience imminent threat. While victims are still required to meet criminal and screening requirements, and lease requirements, you will not be subject to denial solely because you are a victim of an act covered under VAWA 2013. Where someone is abusive to other members of the household, only the abuser may be evicted. Residents in assisted housing facing threat of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking or threat of such violence can be allowed early lease termination or a unit transfer for a matter of safety. If you would like to exercise your VAWA protections, please contact CSI Support & Development immediately.

Notification of Non-Discrimination Based on Disability

CSI Support & Development does not discriminate on the basis of disability status in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its federally assisted programs and activities. We have a 504 coordinator designated to coordinate compliance with the nondiscrimination requirements contained in the Department of Housing and Urban Development's regulations implementing Section 504 (24 CFR, part 8 dated June 2, 1988): CSI Support & Development, Attn: 504 Coordinator, 8425 E. 12 Mile Road, Warren, MI 48093, 586-753-9002, TDD 800-348-7011

Definitions:

Assistance Animal: In accordance with the Fair Housing Amendment Act of 1988, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the co-op seeks to accommodate persons with disabilities who require the assistance of a qualified service/therapy/companion/emotional support animal. These are referred to as “assistance animals.” Assistance animals are not considered pets.

Disability: “Disability” is defined as a physical or mental condition or impairment that is medically cognizable, diagnosable, and substantially limits one or more of a person’s major life activities.

Pet: A “pet” is a domesticated animal kept for ordinary enjoyment and companionship. A pet is not considered an assistance animal.

Animals and Reasonable Accommodations

Under the Fair Housing Amendment Act and comparable state laws, assistance animals may be allowed to accompany individuals in housing as a reasonable accommodation if, and only if, the person requesting the accommodation has a disability or someone is making the request for a person with a disability.

CSI Support & Development is committed to reasonably accommodate persons with disabilities who require the assistance or presence of an animal. However, CSI is also mindful of the health and safety concerns of all the residents/members. Therefore, CSI balances the needs of the individual with the disability with the potential impact of animals on other residents.

Processing a request for an assistance animal is done in accordance with CSI’s Reasonable Accommodation and Modification Policy and with the requirements set forth by HUD and the Department of Justice.

A resident/member or applicant requesting an assistance animal must provide the CSI liaison (management agent) assigned to the co-op with a request for reasonable accommodation if he/she would like CSI to waive any pet rules (additional pet rules are listed on page 7). This request can be made in writing or verbally to the liaison. The liaison must verify the disability and/or need in compliance with the guidance provided by HUD and the Department of Justice. If the disability is not obvious or previously known, the CSI liaison will verify, with a licensed medical professional, that there is the presence of a disability and the need for an assistance animal. There must be an identifiable relationship, or connection, between the requested accommodation/modification and the individual’s disability. Refer to the Reasonable Accommodation and Modification Policy and the co-op liaison for more information on the process.

A reasonable accommodation will not be unreasonably withheld if the resident/member makes the specific request and CSI receives written verification of the disability status if the said disability and/or need are not obvious. All reasonable accommodation requests are considered.

Requirements for All Residents (Including non-animal owners): Residents/members of the community and their guests are required to abide by the following practices:

1. Do not touch or pet any animal unless invited to do so.
2. Do not feed animals unless invited to do so.
3. Do not deliberately startle animals that live on the property.
4. Do not separate or attempt to separate an owner from his/her assistance animal.
5. Do not inquire for details about a person's disabilities. The nature of a person's disability is a private matter.
6. Residents/members with medical conditions that are affected by animals (respiratory diseases, asthma, severe allergies) should contact the co-op liaison if they have a health or safety-related concern about exposure to an animal. The individual will be asked to provide medical verification. The liaison will make reasonable attempts to resolve any conflict in a timely manner, considering the conflicting needs and/or accommodations of all persons involved.

Registration for All Animals:

1. All applicants and resident/members must register their assistance animals and pets with the co-op leasing committee before allowing the animal to live in the unit. The applicant or resident/member must register the animal before it is brought onto the property, and must update the registration at least annually. The registration will include:
  - a. A certificate signed by a licensed veterinarian or a statue or local authority empowered to inoculate dogs and cats stating that the animal has received all inoculations required by applicable state and local law;
  - b. A certificate of spaying or neutering signed by a licensed veterinarian (Dogs and cats must be spayed or neutered prior to occupancy. An exception may be made to this rule if spaying/neutering poses a health threat to the animal. A licensed veterinarian must verify this.);
  - c. If applicable, a license certificate from the appropriate agency;
  - d. Information sufficient to identify the animal;
  - e. The name, address, and phone number of one or more responsible parties who will care for the animal if the resident/member is hospitalized, dies, is incapacitated, is incarcerated or is otherwise unable to care for the animal;
  - f. A signed certification from the animal owner stating that he/she has read the rules for animal ownership and agrees to comply with them.
2. Registration of an animal may be refused if:
  - a. The animal owner fails to provide complete animal registration information or fails to update the animal registration annually;
  - b. A determination is made, based on the animal owner's habits and practices, that the animal owner will be unable to keep the animal in compliance with the animal rules and/or other lease obligations; or
  - c. The animal poses a threat to the health of safety of other residents/members, guests, vendors or service providers or staff;

- d. The animal would interfere with other resident/members' peaceful enjoyment of the property; The presence of the animal would change the nature of the program or cause undue financial and administrative burden;
- e. The resident/member has a history of animal neglect or abuse.

If registration of an animal is denied, such notice of refusal will be given to the animal owner. The notice will state the basis for the refusal and will be served in accordance with the procedures under Animal Rules Amendments and Animal Rules Violations.

Care of Animals and Property:

1. Required animal licenses must be worn at all times, in accordance with state/local laws.
2. Care should be taken so that the animal's food and water dishes do not attract pests.
3. Animals left unattended for an unreasonable amount of time and animals that are improperly cared for will be reported to the co-op and/or authorities.
4. Sanitary Standards:
  - a. Dogs must be housebroken and cats must be trained to use a litter box.
  - b. Dogs must be removed from the building for exercise and to deposit waste. Designated areas on the grounds may be used for animal exercise.
  - c. Animal owners must pick up and properly dispose of all waste by bagging, tying tightly, and taking to the dumpster or dropped down the trash chute (if this does not violate any house rules prohibiting trash chute for animal waste and if the co-op has an operable trash chute). Toilets may not be used.
  - d. Waste must be cleaned from litter boxes daily and litter must be changed at least weekly. Soiled litter must be disposed of by bagging, tying tightly, and taking to the dumpster or dropped down the trash chute (if the co-op has an operable trash chute and it is not prohibited by the co-op's trash room rules). Do not dispose of cat litter, cage waste or shaving in the toilet.
  - e. A separate waste removal charge of $5 per occurrence will be imposed on animal owners who fail to remove waste in accordance with the prescribed animal rules.
  - f. Failure to properly remove and dispose of animal waste is considered a minor lease violation. Three or more instances of minor lease violations may result in additional penalties up to and including termination of tenancy of the resident/member.

Disruptive Animal Behavior:

1. Dogs and cats will remain inside the animal owner's apartment unless they are being carried or on a leash that is no longer than six (6) feet long or on a retractable leash that is extended no longer than six (6) feet and directly controlled by a responsible person. Animal owners must have control over the animal on any part of the property at all times. (Please note that the use of an electronic leash is not sufficient for the purposes of compliance with this rule. The animal must be on a physical leash, harness, or other effective restraint while in common areas in and outside the building.) The animal owner acknowledges that other resident/members may have allergies related to animals or are easily frightened by animals. The animal owner, therefore, agrees to exercise common sense and courtesy with respect to other residents/members' right to the peaceful and quiet enjoyment of the premises. Animals must be carried or walked on a leash on the grounds of the building, and walked in designated areas only.

2. Animals must not be allowed to jump on, impede or otherwise limit any resident/member, staff, vendor or guest's use of the property, including public and common areas.
3. Animal owners must control the noise and odor caused by their animals so that other residents/members are not disturbed.
4. No animal that bites, attacks, or demonstrates other aggressive behavior towards humans or other animals may be kept on the property.
5. Animal owners shall assume liability for any injury sustained by residents/members, guests or staff members that is caused by the owner's animal.

Inspections for Residents/Members with Animals:

1. Inspections of the animal owner's apartment, after reasonable notice to the animal owner and during reasonable hours, are allowed. Such inspection will only be permitted if a signed written complaint is received, or if reasonable grounds are present to believe that the conduct or condition of an animal in the apartment constitutes, under applicable state or local law, a nuisance or threat to the health or safety of the other resident/members or other persons in the community.
2. Animal owners must cooperate with inspectors, maintenance staff, vendors, service people, volunteers and staff for routine unit inspections and/or services as required by the lease and in compliance with notification requirements. The animal owner must restrain or remove the animal if necessary to allow services/inspections or have prior accommodation approval regarding any extenuating circumstances.

Damages from Animals:

1. Animal owners are solely financially responsible for any damage to persons or property caused by their animals. Costs to repair damages may be assessed at any time and are due within thirty (30) days of invoice/charge.
2. Apartments occupied by cats, dogs or other four-legged, warm-blooded animals may be fumigated at the animal owner's expense upon vacating, or upon any evidence of fleas or other pests attracted to animals.

Care for Animals in the Event of Death, Incapacity or Refusal of/by the Animal Owner:

1. If the health or safety of an animal is threatened by the death or incapacity of the animal owner, or by other factors that render the animal owner unable to care for the animal, the co-op may contact the responsible party or parties listed in the animal registration required under the animal registration rules (above). If the responsible party is unwilling or unable to care for the animal, or despite reasonable efforts no contact with the responsible party has been made, the appropriate state or local authority may be requested to remove the animal, where this liability otherwise is not imposed by state and local laws or regulations.
2. If the animal becomes vicious, displays symptoms of severe illness, or demonstrates other behavior that constitutes an immediate threat to the health or safety of other residents/members, and the animal owner refuses to remove the animal or the co-op is unable to contact the animal owner, the co-op may request the state or local authority to remove the animal.

3. If no state or local authority is authorized to remove the animal, the lesser may enter the animal owner's apartment to remove the animal and to place the animal in a facility that will provide care and shelter until the animal owner or a representative of the animal owner is able to assume responsibility for the animal, but no longer than 30 days. The cost of the animal care facility provided shall be the financial responsibility of the animal owner. The co-op is not responsible for the care or the return of the animal.

Pet Rules: These additional rules DO NOT apply to assistance animals, but DO apply to pets:

1. Pets are restricted to small domesticated animals, such as a dog, cat, bird, fish, rodent (including a rabbit) or turtle that are traditionally kept in the home for pleasure rather than for commercial purposes.
2. Only one four-legged, warm-blooded animal is allowed per apartment as a pet.
3. The weight of the pet must not exceed 20 pounds at maturity. Owners must provide proof of such weight.
4. Fish tanks are limited to 20-gallon tanks. Water damage is the financial responsibility of the resident/member.
5. Pets are not permitted in public areas of the building except while directly entering or exiting the building.

Co-op Procedures for Animal Rules Violations:

The following procedures will be taken if these animal rules are found to have been violated:

1. A written notice of the animal rule violation must be served on the animal owner by:
  - a. Sending a letter by first class mail properly stamped and addressed to the resident/member at his/her apartment with a proper return address; or
  - b. Serving a copy of the notice on any adult answering the door at the resident's/member's apartment, or if no adult responds, by placing the notice under the door, if possible, or else by attaching the notice to the door.
2. The notice of the animal rule violation must:
  - a. Contain a brief statement of the factual basis for the determination and the animal rule or rules alleged to be violated;
  - b. State that the animal owner has 10 days from the effective date of serve of the notice to correct the violation (including, in appropriate circumstances, removal of the animal) or to make a written request for a meeting with the management agent to discuss the violation;
  - c. State that the animal owner is entitled to be accompanied by another of his/her choice at the meeting; and
  - d. State that the animal owner's failure to correct the violation, to request a meeting, or to appear at a requested meeting, may result in initiation of procedures to terminate the animal owner's tenancy.
3. If the animal owner makes a timely request for a meeting to discuss an alleged rule violation, a mutually agreeable time and place for the meeting shall be established, but no later than 15 days from the effective date of the service of the notice of the animal rule violation, unless all parties agree to a later date. At the animal rule violation meeting, the animal owner and the co-op management agent (a co-op representative may also be present at this meeting) shall discuss any alleged animal rule violation and attempt to correct it. As a result of the meeting, the animal owner may be given additional time to correct the violation.

4. If the animal owner and the co-op are unable to resolve the animal rule violation at this meeting, or if the co-op determines that the animal owner has failed to correct the animal rule violation within any additional time provided for this purpose, written notice may be served on the animal owner in accordance with the notice requirements in the Procedures for Animal Rule Violations (1a,b), or at the meeting, if appropriate, requiring the animal owner to remove the animal.
5. The notice for animal removal must:
  - a. Contain a brief statement of the factual basis for the determination and the animal rule or rules that have been violated;
  - b. State that the animal owner must remove the animal within 10 days of the effective date of the notice of the animal removal, or of the meeting if notice is served at that meeting; and
  - c. State that failure to remove the animal may result in initiation of procedures to terminate the animal owner's tenancy.
6. Steps may not be initiated to terminate an animal owner's tenancy based on an animal rule violation, unless:
  - a. The animal owner has failed to remove the animal or correct an animal rule violation within the acceptable time periods specified in these animal rules, including any additional time permitted to the animal owner; and
  - b. The animal rule violation is sufficient to begin procedures to terminate the animal owner's tenancy under the terms of the lease and applicable regulations.
7. Procedures to remove an animal in accordance with the provisions of applicable state or local law may be initiated at any time if the animal's conduct or condition is duly determined to constitute a nuisance or a threat to the health or safety of other occupants of the project or of other persons of the community where the project is located.

Co-op Procedures for Animal Rules Amendments:

Amendment of these animal rules may be made at any time by following these procedures:

1. Notice of the proposed changes in the animal rules shall be served on each resident/member provided in these amendment procedures (#3 below). The notice shall include the text of the proposed changes in the rules, state that the residents/members or their representatives may submit written comments on the rules, and state that all comments must be submitted no later than 30 days from the effective date of the notice of the proposed changes in the rules. The notice may also announce the date, time, and place of a meeting to discuss the proposed changes in the rules.
2. Residents/members or their representatives may submit written comments on the proposed changes in the animal rules by the date specified in the notice. One or more meetings with the residents/members during the comment period may be convened to discuss the proposed changes in the rules, and oral comments on the proposed changes may be made at this meeting. Comments made at meetings shall be summarized, reduced to writing, and submitted before the end of the comment period. The final changes in the pet rules will be developed after reviewing the written comments from residents/members and their representatives and summarized comments from the meetings. Attempts will be made to resolve the issues raised by the comments. The content of the final changes in the animal rules is within the sole discretion of CSI Support & Development, subject to the above provisions.

3. Notice as required under these animal rules must be made by:
  - a. Sending a letter by first class mail properly stamped and addressed to the resident/member at his/her apartment with a proper return address; or
  - b. Serving a copy of the notice on any adult answering the door at the resident's/member's apartment, or if no adult responds, by placing the notice under the door, if possible, or else by attaching the notice to the door; or
  - c. For service of notice to residents/members of a high-rise building (any building equipped with an elevator and a community room), posting this notice in at least three conspicuous places within the building and maintaining the posted notices intact and in legible form for 30 days.
4. For purposes of computing time periods following service of the notice, service is effective on the day that all notices are delivered or mailed, or in the case of service by posting, on the day that all notices are initially posted.
5. The revised animal rules take effect:
  - a. Upon renewal of the lease and in accordance with any applicable regulation; and,
  - b. When a resident/member registers an animal.
