Smoking Policy

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITIES ARE SMOKE-FREE

Please remember that we do not allow residents, guests, or caregivers to smoke anywhere on the property. This policy applies to your apartment, patio/balcony, walking path, parking lots, and underground parking. Thank you for your cooperation.

Happy Fathers Day

CELEBRATING DADS ALL MONTH

This month we're celebrating the dads, grandfathers, and father figures whose love, leadership, and life experiences have made a lasting impact on our families and communities. Thank you for the wisdom you pass down, the strength you model every day, and the stories, lessons, and memories you continue to share with the next generation

Bulletin Boards for Communications HAVE SOMETHING YOU WANT TO POST?

If you have an item that you'd like to post on our community bulletin board/s, please be sure to get prior approval from our office. Our team members will monitor and clear the items on this board when they have expired, so please do not post or remove anything without approval. Thank you.

Hello Summer

SUMMER IS HERE

It's the perfect time to enjoy everything our community has to offer! As you soak up the sunshine, here are a few friendly reminders to help everyone stay safe, comfortable, and connected:

- Stay cool & hydrated: Drink plenty of water and take breaks during outdoor activities, especially on warmer days.
- Mind the sun: Hats, sunglasses, and sunscreen go a long way when enjoying walks, events, and time outdoors.
- Join the fun: From fitness classes to social gatherings, summer is packed with opportunities to stay active and connected—check the calendar and join us!

Here's to a happy, healthy, and joy-filled summer together!

Let the sunshine in!

JUST FOR FUN

Summertime is always the best of what might be.

Fun Facts About Fireflies

June brings fireflies to backyards and parks across much of the U.S. These tiny beetles use bioluminescence to attract mates, emitting light from their lower abdomens thanks to a chemical reaction. Each species flashes in a unique pattern, creating a natural light show at dusk.

Wisconsin is home to several firefly species, making warm June evenings especially magical. Interestingly, fireflies don't exist west of the Rockies—so Midwest residents enjoy a special seasonal sparkle.

Back Then In History

In June 1968, Milwaukee launched the first Summerfest, a music festival meant to bring people together and boost civic pride.

What started as a local celebration quickly grew into one of the largest music festivals in the world.

Today, Summerfest draws hundreds of thousands of visitors and features big-name acts across multiple stages on Milwaukee's lakefront. It's a high note in Wisconsin's summer calendar and a celebration of culture, music, and community.

WHAT'S COOKING

Melon Sorbet Float

This fruity and fizzy melon sorbet float is a refreshing way to cool off on a warm summer day.

Made with colorful melon balls, tangy sorbet, and bubbly seltzer, it's part dessert, part drink—and totally delicious.

Servings: 1 Prep Time: 10 minutes Freeze Time: 3 hours

INGREDIENTS

Assorted melon balls (watermelon, honeydew, cantaloupe, etc.)

2 scoops of lemon, raspberry, or fruity sorbet

Fresh mint leaves

Seltzer water

Source: Fifteenspatulas.com

STEP 1: Freeze melon balls for at least 3 hours, or until completely solid. When ready to serve, place two scoops of sorbet into the bottom of a tall glass.

STEP 2: Top with a generous handful of frozen melon balls.

STEP 3: Add fresh mint leaves to taste—just a few or a whole sprig for extra aroma.

STEP 4: Slowly pour seltzer water over everything to fill the glass. The bubbly seltzer combines with the sorbet as it melts, creating a sweet, fizzy float.

STEP 5: Let it sit for a minute or two to allow the sorbet to soften and flavor the drink. Stir gently if desired, sip, and enjoy this summer treat!

THIS MONTH'S BOOK RECOMMENDATION

Same Time Next Summer by Annabel Monaghan

When Sam returns to her family's beach house with her fiancé, she's surprised to run into Wyatt—her childhood best friend and first love. What follows is a nostalgic, emotional, and sun-soaked story about second chances and growing up. With a dreamy summer setting and breezy pacing, Same Time Next Summer is a satisfying vacation read about the paths we choose and the ones that still tug at our hearts.

Juneteenth

A POWERFUL REMINDER

Join us in celebrating Juneteenth - Observed each year on June 19th, it commemorates the day in 1865 when enslaved people in Galveston, Texas finally learned they were free—more than two years after the Emancipation Proclamation.

It stands as a powerful reminder of resilience, delayed justice, and the ongoing pursuit of equality in America.

For many, Juneteenth is a time to reflect on our nation's history, honor the strength of generations past, and celebrate African American culture through community gatherings, storytelling, music, and traditional foods.

As a federal holiday since 2021, it invites all Americans to pause, learn, and engage in meaningful conversations about freedom and progress—past, present, and future.

Help Us To Better Help You RESIDENT SERVICES OFFICE VISITS

To ensure we can address your needs promptly and thoroughly, we kindly ask for your support in two ways:

For in-person visits:

- Please schedule an appointment whenever possible.
- If visiting without an appointment, limit conversations to 5 minutes or less for non-urgent matters.

For non-urgent questions:

- Submit detailed requests via email or voicemail. This helps us respond efficiently and identify common topics for future resources.

These steps allow our team to dedicate focused attention to walk-ins and appointments while managing essential behind-the-scenes tasks that benefit our entire community.

Thank you for partnering with us to enhance service for all residents.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation!
