

Booking Terms and Conditions

Property name: Fitz and Knox

Reference Checks

Our Reference Checks are administered by an external referencing agent. We allow 3 working days for the referencing to be passed after which time the apartment or studio may be offered to other applicants.

Referencing criteria includes a requirement for your income / joint income to be a minimum of 1.7 x the annual rent. You should also not have any unsatisfied CCJ's.

Sanction Checks

We are required by law to conduct Sanction Checks to ensure that applicants are not listed as 'designated persons' under the UK Government Sanctions List, maintained by the Office of Financial Sanctions Implementation (OFSI). These checks are carried out on behalf of the Landlord by our external referencing agent and will be completed alongside your general reference checks. If there is any indication that you are on this list, we are legally obligated to report you to OFSI.

By signing the application, you are confirming you will pass these checks. Should you fail, your application will be cancelled.

Issuing of the Occupation Contract will be, amongst other things, subject to the successful completion of these checks.

Occupation Contract

A sample document is available in the 'Booking info' section of your chosen location's website page.

Once issued, the final Occupation Contract must be signed by all Contract Holders and returned within 5 working days, or, in the case of short turnaround, possibly within 24 hours. Failure to return the Contract may result in the offer being withdrawn.

All Occupation Contracts are negotiated 'subject to contract'. Once provided to you, the executed Occupation Contract is legally binding, and you will be unable to cancel.

Tenancy Deposit / flatfair No Deposit Check In Fee Payment

Your Tenancy Damages Deposit / flatfair No Deposit Check In Fee must be paid within 72 hours of receiving the invite from flatfair. Failure to make payment within 72 hours will result in the booking being cancelled.

Your Tenancy Damages Deposit payment is five weeks rent. Payment of the Tenancy Damages Deposit should be made via the flatfair Portal by the Tenant directly rather than by any third party on the Tenant's behalf. This will be held by the Tenancy Deposit Scheme (Custodial).

If you instead choose the flatfair No Deposit Check In Fee option, you will be required to make a one-off non-refundable payment of 28% of one months rent plus VAT via the flatfair Portal. At the end of your tenancy you will be responsible to make payment for any damages or missed rent.

Your first month's rent must be paid by cleared funds within seven days of the Occupation Contract being signed or one working day prior to the contract start date, whichever happens soonest. Contracts will not be executed prior to the initial monies having been paid.

Your first month's rent is calculated as follows:

If your tenancy begins on or before the 15th of the month, your first rent instalment will cover the remaining days of that month. This is calculated by taking the current months rent, dividing by the number of days in the month, and then multiplying by the remaining days in the month.

If your tenancy commences on or after the 16th, you will be required to pay the remainder of the current month (calculated as above), plus the full monthly rent for the following month.

In the case of joint tenancies, Tenants should nominate one person to make the payment on their behalf – payments from multiple accounts may incur an additional charge.

Please be advised that advertised rent charges and offers may fluctuate throughout the year. The rent of your studio will be secured once you have signed the Occupation Contract and paid the first instalment of your rent and your Damage Deposit.

Payment Method

Your first rent instalment payment must be made by credit or debit card.

Subsequent payments are required to be made using Pay By Bank via our Residents' App / Portal, or by Standing Order.

Electricity consumption during your tenancy will be monitored by an Energy Agent appointed to administer the fair use allowance. The Energy Agent may provide updates or notifications about your usage by email or through a relevant app or platform.

If your electricity usage exceeds the expected seasonal level or the total allowance during the year, you will be responsible for paying the cost of the additional electricity used. Any charges for excess usage will be invoiced by the Energy Agent and must be paid within 14 days.

If your electricity usage is below the allowance, no refund, credit or reduction in booking fees will be given and any unused allowance cannot be carried forward.

For the purposes of administering the fair use allowance, your usage data (including meter readings and occupancy information) may be processed by the landlord and the Energy Agent solely to monitor energy consumption, issue usage notifications, calculate any excess charges and collect payment, in accordance with applicable UK data protection laws.

11. RESTRICTIONS ON GIVING NOTICE UNDER CLAUSE F5: NOTICE MAY NOT BE GIVEN UNTIL AFTER THE FIRST SIX MONTHS OF OCCUPATION (F+)

11.1. The Landlord may not give notice under Clause F5 before the end of the period of six months starting with the occupation date.

11.2. If this Contract is a substitute occupation contract, the Landlord may not give such notice under Clause F5 before the end of the period of six months starting with the occupation date of the original contract.

11.3.2. immediately before the occupation date of this Contract a Contract-Holder under this Contract was a Contract-Holder under the preceding contract and a Landlord under this Contract was a Landlord under the preceding contract, and

11.3.3. this Contract relates to the same (or substantially the same) Premises as the preceding contract,

and

11.4. "original contract" means:

11.4.1. where the substitute occupation contract has an occupation date falling immediately after the end of a contract which is not a substitute occupation contract, the occupation contract which precedes the substitute occupation contract;

11.4.2. where there have been successive substitute occupation contracts, the occupation contract which preceded the first of the substitute occupation contracts.

12. RESTRICTION ON GIVING NOTICE UNDER CLAUSE F5 FOLLOWING RETALIATORY POSSESSION CLAIM (F+)

12.1. Clause F12.2 applies where the Landlord (having given the Contract-Holder a notice under Clause F5) has made a possession claim on the ground in Clause F8, and the court has refused to make an order for possession because it considered the claim to be a retaliatory claim (see Section 217 of the Act).

13. FURTHER RESTRICTIONS ON GIVING NOTICE UNDER CLAUSE F5 - FAILURE TO PROVIDE WRITTEN STATEMENT (F)

18.2. The Landlord may not give a notice at a time when a holding deposit (within the meaning of the Fees Act) paid in relation to this Contract has not been repaid, and the circumstances are such that the failure to repay the deposit amounts to a breach of the requirements of Schedule 2 to that Act.

18.3. In determining for the purposes of this Clause whether a prohibited payment or a holding deposit has been repaid, the payment or deposit is to be treated as having been repaid to the extent (if any) that it has been applied towards either or both of the following: a payment of rent under this Contract, or a payment required as security in respect of this Contract.

ANNEX 1

EXPLANATORY INFORMATION AND DEFINITIONS

Welcome to the Wales Fixed Term Standard Contract produced by Dutton Gregory Solicitors in response to the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016 as amended (“the Act”). You should keep this document somewhere safe as it will govern your relationship both with the Landlord of your new home, and with the Managing Agent for the whole of the time that you are in residence. It will also set out the rights and obligations of both you and the Landlord. As such you should read the document carefully and raise any queries with the Landlord or Managing Agent. As this is a Fixed Term Standard Contract, it will last for a specified period of time. If you remain in occupation beyond the fixed term then the Contract will become a ‘periodic’ Contract which means it will continue on the same terms as the original contract until one party gives notice to the other, although certain terms can be varied during a periodic contract.

The Landlord is required to provide you with a written statement of terms to set out your rights and obligations under the Act, as well as any other terms agreed between the Landlord and you. This Agreement is your written statement of terms. You are entitled to receive a copy of the written statement within 14 days of the occupation date, but it can be sent before the occupation date.

If, before the introduction of the Act, you had an Assured Shorthold Contract relating to the Premises then you will have a ‘Converted Contract’. If you have a Converted Contract then you are entitled to receive a copy of the written statement within six months of the 1st of December 2022.

The written statement can be sent electronically if you have provided an email address for contact.

If you did not receive a copy of the written statement within the above timescales then, for each day after the occupation date that the written statement has not been provided, the Landlord may be liable to pay you compensation, equivalent to a day’s rent, up to a maximum of two months’ rent (unless the failure was intentional in which case you can apply to the court to increase this amount).

At the same time, please be aware that you have the right to seek independent advice either from: your solicitor; the Welsh Government website; or another advice agency, such as Shelter Cymru or the Citizens Advice Bureau, regarding your Contract or dispute resolution.

Disputes regarding this Contract may be determined in the County Court but if you have a problem with the Premises then you should first contact the Landlord or the Managing Agent to try and resolve it.

You have some unalterable rights regarding the Premises, but some of these rights are subject to obtaining the Landlord’s consent. In most circumstances that consent cannot be unreasonably withheld. Terms where consent is required are identified.

You can be held responsible for any anti-social behaviour that takes place in the Premises even if you did not personally cause or commit the anti-social behaviour. Anti-social behaviour includes excessive noise, verbal abuse, physical assault, and domestic abuse (including physical, sexual, psychological, emotional, or financial abuse)

You should not allow the Premises to become overcrowded by allowing people to reside in the Premises beyond the maximum number allowed. Part 10 of the Housing Act 1985 provides the basis for calculating the ‘maximum number allowed’ figure.

You cannot be evicted from the Premises without a Possession Order obtained from the County Court local to the Premises, unless you abandon the Premises. Before the Court can make a Possession Order the Landlord must demonstrate that they have followed the correct procedures and that one of the following situations below applies.

- 1) You have broken at least one of the terms of the Contract (which includes failure to pay rent, engaging in or threatening to engage in anti-social behaviour or other prohibited conduct, or failing to take proper care of the Premises) and it is reasonable to evict the Contract-Holder;
- 2) You are in serious rent arrears (for example where the rental period is a month, at least two months' rent is unpaid);
- 3) The Landlord can provide you with alternative accommodation, and one of the 'Estate Management' grounds under Section 160 of the Act applies, and it is reasonable to evict you;
- 4) Where the Contract falls within Schedule 9B of the Act, you have been given at least two months' notice that you must leave the Premises under Section 186 of the Act;
- 5) Where the Contract incorporates Section 194 of the Act (a Landlord's break Clause), the Landlord has given you notice that you must leave the Premises under Section 194 of the Act, and also;
 - a) There are no restrictions on the Landlord serving you with notice under Section 194 of the Act;
 - b) You are given at least six months' notice that you must vacate the Premises, and that notice was given at least 18 months after the occupation date, and that the fixed term of the Contract was for at least two years – except where the Contract falls within Schedules 8A, 9 or 9C to the Act;
 - c) Where the Contract falls within Schedule 8A to the Act, you were given at least two months' notice that you must leave the Premises;
 - d) Where the Contract falls within Schedules 8A and/or 9 and/or 9C of the Act, you were given the relevant notice that you must leave the Premises and the notice given is the notice that is appropriate to end that type of Contract.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is unlikely that this Contract falls within Schedules 8A, 9, 9B or 9C of the Act.

Whilst you are named in this Contract, anyone else who resides in the Premises with you may obtain a right to succeed the Contract if you die during the Contract.

As well as the Contract, you may be asked to sign the check-in or inventory which will list the Landlord's fixtures and fittings and the other items which the Landlord provides for your use during the Contract. You will also be given copies of the following documents relating to the premises, receipt of which is acknowledged by you when you sign this Contract:

- The Energy Performance Certificate (EPC)
- A current Gas Safety Certificate – if there is a gas supply
- Details of the deposit replacement scheme
- The Electrical Installation and Condition Report (EICR)

If any of these documents are missing when you come to sign the Contract, please speak with the Managing Agent as these documents are just as important as the Contract itself.

This Contract contains four types of Clauses: Key Terms, Fundamental Terms, Supplementary Terms, and Additional Terms.

Key Matters are the core elements of the Contract and they are set out on page 1.

Fundamental Terms must be contained within the Contract as prescribed by the Act. Certain Fundamental Terms can be altered but they can only be altered in a way that 'improves the position' of the Contract-Holder. However, Section 33 of the Act allows for minor editorial changes so long as the meaning of the Fundamental Term is unchanged. Fundamental Terms that cannot be altered are marked with an (F) next to them and Fundamental Terms that can be altered, as set out above, are marked with an (F+).

Once this Contract has been given to you then the provisions regarding Fundamental Terms, as set out above, apply.

ANNEX 2

Fundamental Terms and Supplemental Terms that have been Altered or Removed:

Please identify the Clause number of the Fundamental or Supplemental term that has been altered and then explain how it has been altered from the original. If the Fundamental or Supplemental term has been removed entirely then please state that it has been removed.

The following Supplemental Terms are not integrated into this Contract:

1. To, where the Contract-Holder reasonably believes that any fault, defect, damage or disrepair to the fixtures and fittings or items listed in the inventory is not the Landlord's responsibility, and within a reasonable period of time, carry out repairs to such fixtures and fittings or other items listed in the inventory, or replace them (S).
 - a. The circumstances in which the above Clause applies include where the fault, defect, damage or disrepair has occurred wholly or mainly because of an act or omission amounting to a lack of care by the Contract-Holder, any permitted occupier or any person visiting the Premises (S).
 - b. In circumstances where the Contract-Holder has not undertaken the repairs that are their responsibility in accordance with the above Clause, the Landlord may enter the Premises at any reasonable time for the purpose of carrying out repairs to the fixtures and fittings or other items listed in the inventory, or replacing them. The Landlord shall provide at least 24 hours' notice before entering the Premises (S).
2. The Contract-Holder must keep safe any notices, orders or other documents delivered to the Premises addressed to the Landlord specifically or the owner generally, and as soon as is reasonably practicable, give the original copies of any such notices, orders or other documents to the Landlord.
3. To use the Premises for the purpose of a private residence only in the occupation of the Contract-Holder and not for business purposes, without the Landlord's Consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contract-Holder should not register a company or operate a business at the Premises.
4. The Contract-Holder may change any of the suppliers to the Premises of electricity, gas, or other fuel or water (including sewerage) services; telephone, internet, cable television or satellite television services.
 - a. The Contract-Holder must inform the Landlord as soon as reasonably practicable of any changes made pursuant to the above Clause.
 - b. Unless the Landlord consents, the Contract-Holder must not leave the Premises, at the end of the Contract, without a supplier of electricity, gas or other fuel (if applicable) or water (including sewerage) services, unless these utilities were not present at the Premises on the occupation date; or install or remove, or arrange to have installed or removed, any specified service installations at the Premises.
 - c. References in this Contract to "specified service installation" means an installation for the supply of water, gas or electricity, for sanitation, for space heating or for heating water.

5. The Contract-Holder must take reasonable steps to ensure the Premises is secure. The Contract-Holder may change any lock on the external or internal doors of the Premises provided that any such changes provide no less security than that previously in place.
6. The locks are changed by the Contract-Holder, the Landlord must be notified as soon as reasonably practicable of any change and make available to the Landlord a working copy of the new key. At the end of the Contract the Contract-Holder must return to the Landlord all keys for the Premises.
7. Not to remove any of the Fixtures and Fittings from the Premises to store the same in the loft, basement or garage (if any) without obtaining the Landlord's prior written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and then to ensure that any such items are stored safely and upon vacating the Premises, to leave the same in the places in which they were on the occupation date.
8. Not to remove the Fixtures and Fittings as specified in the Inventory and Schedule of Condition or any part of them or any substitute Fixtures and Fittings from the Premises and not to bring onto the Premises the Contract-Holder's own equipment or effects without the prior written consent of the Landlord, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.
9. Not to place or exhibit any aerial, satellite dish, notice, advertisement, sign or board on the exterior of the Premises or in the interior of the same without first obtaining the Landlord's written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and where such consent is granted, to meet all costs of installation, removal and thereafter make good any resultant damage.
10. The Landlord must provide the Contract-Holder with an Inventory in relation to the Premises no later than the date by which the Landlord must provide the Contract-Holder with the written statement of this Contract in accordance with Clause X.
11. The Inventory must set out the contents of the Premises, including all Fixtures and Fittings and must describe their condition as at the occupation date.
12. If the Contract-Holder disagrees with the information within the Inventory, then they may provide comments to the Landlord.
13. Where no comments are received by the Landlord within 14 days, the Inventory is deemed accurate.
14. Where comments are received by the Landlord within 14 days, the Landlord must either— (a) amend the Inventory in accordance with those comments and send the amended inventory to the Contract-Holder, or (b) inform the Contract-Holder that the comments are not agreed, and re-send the original Inventory to the Contract-Holder, with the comments attached to a copy of the Inventory, or (c) amend the Inventory in accordance with some of the comments and send the amended Inventory to the Contract-Holder, together with a record of the comments which have not been agreed.
15. The Contract-Holder shall indemnify the Landlord for any loss arising from the failure of the Contract to keep a mutually agreed appointment to complete the check-out procedures at the termination or sooner ending of the Contract which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall include indemnifying the Landlord for any costs incurred in arranging a second check-out appointment. If neither the Contract-Holder nor their Agent shall keep the second appointment any assessment made by the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent shall be final and binding on the Contract-Holder. Should the Landlord or their Agent fail to attend such appointment the Contract-Holder's reasonable costs incurred in attending the Premises will be met by the Landlord.
16. The Contract-Holder may not permit persons who are not lodgers or sub-holders to live in the Premises.

17. The Contract-Holder may not allow persons to live in the Premises as lodgers without the Landlord's consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.
18. I will inform the Managing Agent if I am likely to be absent from the Premises for more than 28 days (I appreciate this is important for fire safety and security reasons).
19. The Contract-Holder may not allow persons to live in the Premises as lodgers without the Landlord's consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (S). For the purposes of this Clause, lodger includes any arrangement whereby the Contract-Holder receives money, or other consideration, for accommodation from persons staying with them for any length of time.

ANNEX 3

Estate Management Grounds (F+)

Ground A (building works)

The Landlord intends, within a reasonable time of obtaining possession of the Premises— (a) to demolish or reconstruct the building or part of the building comprising the Premises, or (b) to carry out work on that building or on land treated as part of the Premises, and cannot reasonably do so without obtaining possession of the Premises.

Ground B (redevelopment schemes)

This ground arises if the Premises satisfies the first condition or the second condition.

The first condition is that the Premises is in an area which is the subject of a redevelopment scheme approved in accordance with Part 2 of Schedule 8 to the Act, and the Landlord intends within a reasonable time of obtaining possession to dispose of the Premises in accordance with the scheme.

The second condition is that part of the Premises is in such an area and the Landlord intends within a reasonable time of obtaining possession to dispose of that part in accordance with the scheme, and for that purpose reasonably requires possession of the Premises.

Ground C (charities)

The Landlord is a charity and the Contract holder's continued occupation of the Premises would conflict with the objects of the charity.

But this ground is not available to the Landlord ("L") unless, at the time the Contract was made and at all times after that, the person in the position of Landlord (whether L or another person) has been a charity.

In this Clause, "charity" has the same meaning as in the Charities Act 2011(1) (see Section 1 of that Act).

Ground D (Premises suitable for disabled people)

The Premises has features which are substantially different from those of ordinary Premises and which are designed to make it suitable for occupation by a physically disabled person who requires accommodation of a kind provided by the Premises and— (a) there is no longer such a person living in the Premises, and (b) the Landlord requires the Premises for occupation by such a person (whether alone or with members of that person's family).

Ground E (housing associations and housing trusts: people difficult to house)

The Landlord is a housing association or housing trust which makes Premises available only for occupation (whether alone or with others) by people who are difficult to house, and— (a) either there is no longer such a person living in the Premises or a local housing authority has offered the Contract-Holder a right to occupy another Premises under a secure Contract, and (b) the Landlord requires the Premises for occupation by such a person (whether alone or with members of that person's family).

A person is difficult to house if that person's circumstances (other than financial circumstances) make it especially difficult for them to satisfy their need for housing

Ground F (groups of Premises for people with special needs)

The Premises constitutes part of a group of Premises which it is the practice of the Landlord to make available for occupation by persons with special needs and— (a) a social service or special facility is provided in close proximity to the group of Premises in order to assist persons with those special needs, (b) there is no longer a person with those special needs living in the Premises, and (c) the Landlord requires the Premises for occupation by a person who has those special needs (whether alone or with members of their family).

UNDER-OCCUPATION GROUNDS

Ground G (reserve successors)

The Contract-Holder succeeded to the occupation contract under Section 73 of the Act as a reserve successor (see Sections 76 and 77 of the Act), and the accommodation comprised in the Premises is more extensive than is reasonably required by the Contract holder.

Ground H (joint Contract-Holders)

This ground arises if the first condition and the second condition are met.

The first condition is that a joint Contract holder's rights and obligations under the Contract have been ended in accordance with— (a) Section 138 (withdrawal) of the Act, or (b) Section 225, 227 or 230 (exclusion) of the Act.

The second condition is that— (a) the accommodation comprised in the Premises is more extensive than is reasonably required by the remaining Contract-Holder (or Contract holders), or (b) where the Landlord is a community Landlord, the remaining Contract-Holder does not (or the remaining Contract-Holders do not) meet the Landlord's criteria for the allocation of housing accommodation.

OTHER ESTATE MANAGEMENT REASONS

Ground I (other estate management reasons)

This ground arises where it is desirable for some other substantial estate management reason that the Landlord should obtain possession of the Premises.

An estate management reason may, in particular, relate to— (a) all or part of the Premises, or (b) any other premises of the Landlord to which the Premises is connected, whether by reason of proximity or the purposes for which they are used, or in any other manner.
